

THE Number for December, 1850, completed the ty-thirtieth semi-annual volume. The work has enlarged since its commencement in July, 1839, and the volume now contains more than seven hundred letters, two pages. A few complete copies, from two obtained at the publisher's office, 142 Fulton street, New York, neatly and substantially bound, for two dollars a half per volume.

The following is a few of the many commendatory letters received by the editor of the Merchants' Magazine from distinguished statesmen:

Letter from the Hon. Henry Clay.

ASHLAND, 20th July, 1841.

Dear Sir: I wish to express to you the gratification derived on receiving the July number of the Merchants' Magazine and Commerce Review, from two portraits in the beginning, and from reading your views to your friends at the end of it. When we feel und to those who have contributed to our information, and to those who have not. We know all the knowledge of them, of their appearance, of the nature of their countenance, and of the character and aims of their mind, which we can acquire. You have seen the same thing in the case of the Review, and do not speak for them under those obligations; a number of your valuable work now before me, in which, indeed, as you have said, you have become more and more familiar with my Magazine. Review, and have no hesitation in expressing my hearty opinion that it is eminently entitled to the public notice which you have so liberally bestowed upon it. The amount of valuable statistical and other information highly useful not only to the merchant, but to the man, to the cultivator of the earth, to the manufacturer, to all classes of the business community, is so great, that I am glad that it is so readily accessible.

Entertaining this opinion, I am glad that it has been expressed, and that you continue to use liberally patronized. I hope that you will continue to do so, and that you will guard, I am truly your friend and obedient servant, Freeman Hunt, esq.

H. CLICE

Extract of a letter from Hon. Willard Flinn to me.

"I have read it (Merchants' Magazine) with great interest, and I think it is one of the most valuable periodicals that I have seen."

ever published. To the merchant it seems quite dispensable, and to the statesman and man of general information almost essential. It is a grand repository of useful and important information, and one where so well digested and so accessible as the others. I only regret that I do not own the whole work.

Letter from the Hon. Thomas H. Benton.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 20, 1837.

Mr. Freeman Hunt.—Sir: I owe you many thanks for the opportunities I have had to read the Merchants Magazine, and have found it in reality to be a magazine of the most valuable and interesting character. The title would imply, and presented with a fullness and clearness which delights while it instructs. It is, in fact, a merchant's magazine in the large acceptation of the term—merchants who go between nations, whose operations bring many departments of the commerce of the state of the world, into daily requisition. It is not the great World, only, but the one of modest, but, nevertheless, of most useful operation to the merchant of the interior also—who will find this more to abound with the information the pursuit of his business and the elevation of the mercantile character requires. Nor is its utility as all confined to merchants, it extends to the legislator and the diplomatist, and we are charged with managing the affairs of the nation myself, I have found it most useful to me in my civil labors, and have been in the habit for many years carefully consulting it.

Very respectfully, sir, your obedient servant,
THOMAS H. BENJ.

Letter from Hon. Wm. H. Seward.

My Dear Sir: Have the goodness to place my name in your list of subscribers for the Merchants' Magazine.

regard it as an invaluable work for the use of a would understand not merely commercial operation, but the general principles of the various questions involved in the administration of the ment.

I am, with great respect, your humble servant,
Freeman Hunt, Esq., and WILLIAM H. CRAW-FORD.

The Merchants' Magazine is published monthly, Fulton street, New York, by FREEMAN HUNT, at nailed to subscribers for Five Dollars a Year, in advance.

THE BEST AND MOST VALUABLE AGRICULTURAL PUBLICATIONS AND MACLUREY, exhibited the State Fair in 1860, will be seen by the award minions below:

Awarded to E. Whitman, Jr., No. 55 Light street
more, by the Maryland State Agricultural Society, Baltimore, for the best Agricultural Magazine.

October, 1860.

For the best Plough in the ploughing match between the best ploughing with a team, (special premium.)

For the best plough on exhibition, 1st premium
For the best Reaping Machine, 1st premium
For the best Field Roller, 1st premium
For the best Corn-Stalk Cutters and Grinders, 1
premium

For the best Churns, 1st premium -
For the best Hay and Manure Fork, 1st premium
For the best Hay Rake, 1st premium
For the best Cultivator, 1st premium

No exhibitor of Agricultural Implements at the annual Fair, having received the amount of the bounty offered on the different kinds of Implements and Machines, it is conclusive evidence that our exhibitors sent the best and most valuable on exhibition.

The Fair was held at the Fair Grounds, for the promotion of the Mechanic Arts, held in Baltimore in

Our stock this season will be the largest ever offered this city, and probably the largest in the world, consisting of more than 8,000 Ploughs, 250 Threshing Machines, 1000 Straw Fans, 1000 Corn Shellers, 500 Straw Cutters, 500 Cultivators, Reaping Machines, 500 Drills, 500 Mowers, 500 Saws, 500 Axes, 500 Axes, 500 Axes, 500 Cotton Presses, together with every article which a planter could wish in the prosecution of his pursuit of which will be sold on reasonable terms, at auction or retail.

E. WHITMAN, Jr., & Co.

At the old stand, 55 Light st., Baltimore.

COLD SPRING WATER CURE.

THIS NEW AND SPLENDID ESTABLISHMENT the scientific treatment of the various diseases which the human system is afflicted, is situated three miles from the city of Buffalo, in a rural spot accessible from all points as to be reached with convenience or delay.

A line of omnibuses runs from the steamboat in Buffalo to the springs every ten minutes.

The house and grounds are near the extensive beautiful green-houses and nurseries of the Messrs.

& Bryants; and the scenery in all directions is passed, as regards either variety or beauty; all points of view, from which may be taken in at a the broad expanse of Lake Erie, the Niagara flowing justly towards the Falls, extensive forests, a "Queen City of the Lakes," with its moving panorama of steamboats and ceaseless enterprise.

The water, taken immediately from the cold "Cold Spring," is unsurpassed as regards cold purity, by any in the United States. The house, now Connected with the establishment, and constituting its attractions, are the fixtures and conveniences for innocent and healthful gymnastic exercises.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

The institution is under the general supervision of M. Davis, M. D., Professor of the Theory and Practice of Medicine.

Dr. Davis, M. D., President of the University School of Medicine in the Central Medical College, and Dr. J. B. Gentry, formerly of Danville, Va., the resident physician and permanently associated with the before mentioned gentleman as counsel, and associate of the medical control. And the friends of the establishment of a matter of felicitating that the services of Miss M. Taylor, a lady of high medical attainments, who tended two courses of lectures in the Central Medical College, have been secured, and that female patients any time avail themselves of her invaluable aid and

The steward's department is under the control of a man eminently qualified for that position; and tried pains will be taken to have every thing appert to the establishment arranged on a plan, and carried in a way, to ensure the comfort, and promote the health and happiness of all who may wish to avail themselves of its benefits. Baths of all descriptions, adapted to the various forms of disease, and constructed on not inferior to those of any other establishment.

An enlightened public sentiment has everywhere dictated a reckless use of drugs in the treatment of disease, while intolerable sufferings and broken constitutions have imperatively demanded "Reform." A return from the morbid and fatal departure from the simplicity of Nature is called for, alike by a rational consideration of the deplorable exigencies of our condition. Hydropathic scientific use of water as a restorative and curative is a practical and salutary substitution of a simple and harmless mode of curing the sick, for that system.

gine, depleting, and cauterizing, which, in obtaining mastery over disease, too frequently places the patient beyond the reach of further annoyance. The success of various Water Cure establishments in this country is nothing of any other, has fully confirmed the hopes of early discoverers and promulgators of the great system upon which the system is founded, and renders communications unnecessary. It is deemed sufficient to say, that the "Cold Spring Water Cure" will compare favorably with any of the well-conducted establishments

For board, medical advice, attendance and nursing from $7 to $14 per week, payable weekly, varying according to the room and attention required. Each will be required to furnish two linen sheets, two towels, one wash-bowl, and four towels.

where it is not convenient for the patient to furnish as above, they can be supplied at the establishment paying fifty cents a week.

All communications for medical advice should be addressed either to S. M. Davis, M. D., or to George W. M. D., 239 Main street, Buffalo, N. Y.

S. M. & G. W. DAVIS & Co., Bu

may 24—

INFALLIBLE Yeast Powder—Just re

A from Paston & Merrill, warranted to make light, and consequently nutritious bread. For sale by JOHN B. KIBBEY & CO
dec 12 No. 5, opp. Centre Mar